Strengthening Forensic Science in the United States National Research Council 2009-07-29 Scores of talented and dedicated people serve the forensic science community, performing vitally important work.

However, they are often constrained by lack of adequate resources, sound policies, and national support. It is clear that change and advancements, both systematic and scientific, are needed in a number of forensic science disciplines to ensure the reliability of work, establish enforceable standards, and promote best practices with consistent application. Strengthening Forensic Science in the United States: A Path Forward provides a detailed plan for addressing these needs and suggests the creation of a new government entity, the National Institute of Forensic Science, to establish and enforce standards within the forensic science community. The benefits of improving and regulating the forensic science disciplines are clear: assisting law enforcement officials, enhancing homeland security, and reducing the risk of wrongful conviction and exoneration. Strengthening Forensic Science in the United States gives a full account of what is needed to advance the forensic science disciplines, including upgrading of systems and organizational structures, better training, widespread adoption of uniform and enforceable best practices, and mandatory certification and accreditation programs. While this book provides an essential call-to-action for congress and policy makers, it also serves as a vital tool for law enforcement agencies, criminal prosecutors and attorneys, and forensic science educators.

Research in Law Enforcement Selection Michael G. Aamodt 2004 This book is the most comprehensive reference ever written for individuals interested in law enforcement selection. The chapters contain meta-analyses (statistical reviews of the literature) investigating the validity of methods used to predict police performance. These methods include education requirements, cognitive ability, background variables (e.g., military experience, arrest record, discipline problems at work), personality inventories, interest inventories, physical agility tests, assessment centers, and interviews. The first chapter in the book is a short primer on meta-analysis that informs the reader about the purpose of meta-analysis and how to interpret the meta-analysis tables contained in the book. Chapter 2 describes the methods used to conduct the meta-analyses for this project. Chapters 3-11 list the meta-analysis results for the various predictors of police performance. Chapter 12 describes a meta-analysis of the relationships among criteria (e.g., performance ratings, discipline problems, commendations), Chapter 13 describes a meta-analysis of the relationships among selection methods, and Chapter 14 describes a meta-analysis of the relationship between the various criteria and sex, race, age, and tenure. Chapter 15 summarizes the previous chapters and identifies future research needs.

SURVIVAL GUIDE to Law Enforcement Promotional Preparation Jonni Redick 2019-07-18 How do you know if you're ready to promote? And why should you? The Survival Guide for Law Enforcement Promotional Preparation provides personalization on how to assess your readiness and develop a plan to survive the preparation process. Retired Chief Redick has spent over 29 years serving in law enforcement and spent the last 15 years involved in promotional preparation working to identify and create study approaches and workshop environments that effectively help to manage the copious amounts of information within an organization that generate from policy, procedures and legal codes. Within the chapters, she will share strategies for time management; how to build your confidence and competence; why it's important to have mentors; how to cultivate skills to be a continual learner, and how to develop the skill of leveraging your life, personal and professional experience to expand your capacity for promotion. With the demands of work-life balance, the "Survival Guide" to Law Enforcement Promotional Preparation will assist in identifying support resources; develop your own self-paced training; and build collaborative learning cultures. As added content, she includes samples of how to create a Career Development Plan, a 10 week study plan, oral interview workshop, and promotional preparation study workshop. Her training and instructional background is inclusive of many areas of expertise: leadership and promotional development, cultural diversity, procedural justice, implicit bias, and Franklin Covey leadership coursework. She is a certified California State Personnel Board Chairperson and has participated both as a chairperson and agency representative on promotional examination oral interview panels and in examination development. Additionally, she has cultivated partnerships with community-based organizations to enhance trust creating pathways for careers into law enforcement through partnered co-horts. She is a past member of the International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP) Human and Civil Rights Committee, Past President of the NOBLE Central Valley California Chapter, and a member of the American Association of University of Women. She is a graduate of California POST Command College with course work in Enhanced Leadership; Futures Forecasting and Economic Issues; Politics of Change; and Technological and Environmental Issues. She holds a Master's of Science degree in Law Enforcement and Public Safety Leadership from the University of San Diego. Currently, she is an adjunct faculty member at University of San Diego for their online Masters of Science program and also at San Joaquin Delta College for their POST Regional Academy. You will find this guide an excellent resource to create your framework for promotional preparation and give you tools to navigate the personal balance of priorities. Retired Chief Redick has a deep level of passion and commitment to enhancing the leadership quotient in the law enforcement industry. The "Survival Guide" to Law Enforcement Promotional Preparation is one of the best investments you can make in yourself.

A Resource Guide on Racial Profiling Data Collection Systems Deborah Ramirez 2014-11-07 This resource guide (November 2000) is organized into four main sections: Chapter 1: Introduction Chapter 2: An introduction to the nature of the problem of racial profiling. Chapter 3: A general description of data collection and its limitations. Chapter 4: Study-site descriptions and analysis. Chapter 5: Recommendations and future goals. Chapter 6: Conclusions and Recommendations The "selected site" approach of this resource guide is intended to encourage and guide police and communities as they begin to take action to evaluate allegations of racial profiling and to help police and communities learn from one another's experiences and successes. To facilitate this exchange of ideas, contact information is provided for each site described in this guide. To promote the continued exchange of facts, forms, and new data collection systems, one recommendation of this guide is to create a Web site for sharing information about racial profiling and data collection. Firearm Safety Certificate - Manual for California Firearms Dealers and DOJ Certified Instructors California Department of Justice 2016-12 The growing concern over the number of accidental firearm shootings, especially those involving children, prompted passage of the initial handgun safety law which went into effect in 1994. The stated intent of the California Legislature in enacting the current FSC law is for persons who obtain firearms to have a basic familiarity with those firearms, including, but not limited to, the safe handling and storage of those firearms. The statutory authority for this program is contained in Penal Code sections 26840 and 31610 through 31700. These statutes mandate DOJ to develop, implement and maintain the FSC Program. Pursuant to Penal Code section 26840, a firearms dealer cannot deliver a firearm unless the person receiving the firearm presents a valid FSC, which is obtained by passing a written test on firearm safety. Prior to taking delivery of a firearm from a licensed firearms dealer, the purchaser/recipient must also successfully perform a safe handling demonstration with that firearm..

Instructor's Manual for California's Bus Driver's Training Course California. Department of Education 1990 This instructor's manual was designed to help graduates of the California Bus Driver Instructor Course provide effective instruction to school bus driver trainees. It contains enough material for 20-30 hours of classroom training. The information is organized in 12 instructional units that cover the following topics: introduction to the course; driver's license and special certificate requirements; bus operation, use, laws, and regulations; vehicle components; general defensive driving techniques; specialized defensive driving techniques; passenger loading and unloading; emergency procedures; passenger management; activity trips; the special needs passenger; and public and community relations. Each unit includes an outline of the lesson plans in it, notes to the instructor, content information, handouts, and pretests and unit test. A final unit of the guide provides additional information for the instructor on teaching the course, such as materials needed to conduct classes, classroom arrangement, lesson planning and teaching techniques, and tests and answer keys. Instructor's Behind-the-wheel Guide for California's Bus Driver's Training Course

California. State Department of Education 1989 Intended to help produce safe, competent California school bus drivers, this document contains instructor's materials for a bus driver education course with eight sequential skill levels, including a final appraisal. The first section contains the curriculum's purpose and objectives, the California standards for a state-certified bus driver instructor, the California standards for a delegated behind-the-wheel trainer, and general guidelines for selection of training sites. In addition, information is provided on vehicle inspection training, brake system inspection training, and undercarriage training. Copies of a driver's inspection report and a driver's performance review also appear. Each of the next eight sections contain materials for one of the following skill levels: (1) basic vehicle familiarization; (2) precision training in vehicle movement and driving fundamentals; (3) transmission control and shifting procedures; (4) general defensive driving techniques; (5) specialized defensive driving techniques; (6) passenger loading and unloading procedures; (7) emergency procedures; and (8) final appraisal. The first seven sections each contain a table of contents, purpose and objectives, a note to the instructor, a glossary of terms, an outline of content to be taught, and a sheet on which the instructor can record the trainee's demonstrated competence at each task covered. The final appraisal section includes the purpose and objectives of the appraisal, advice to instructors on being tough but fair, final appraisal procedures, and a form on which to document the final appraisal.
